

KIT SAILER received the Governor's Award for Outstanding Teaching Artist in 2012. She has taught adults at the Visual Arts Center of New Jersey, the Newark Museum and at the Artist/Teacher Institute. She works with K-12 students as an AIE resident artist and through other programs. She earned her BFA from Syracuse University, receiving the Hazard/Gee Fellowship upon graduation. Other awards include NJ State Council on the Arts Fellowship, Artist-in-residence at the Newark Museum, and participation in Aljira's Emerge program. Solo exhibits include Johnson & Johnson, New Jersey Center for Visual Arts, Tomasulo Gallery, Watchung Arts Center, and Catskill Art Society.